A collection spanning 30 years from Australia and Europe! On Saturday the 13th of October 2018 in Cooma, passionate collector Gary Prosser will be moving on a vast assortment of antiques, collectables and household contents. This is the sale if you have been looking to find that unique and quirky historical piece of furniture, if only the items for sale could communicate their colourful pasts.

Some of the pieces in the collection have travelled quite a distance for example, a mirror straight out of the Moulin Rouge in Paris, to antiques and artefacts from a castle in Switzerland. There are also several furniture and antique pieces from Australian Colonial times for example an Early Australian children's school desk. Other period items for sale would be perfect for anyone doing a period renovation as you'll discover a great assortment of restoration hardware.
